

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

July 23, 2023 | Sanctuary Service | 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the welcome card from the pew rack in front of you to share important information with us; an online form is available by scanning the QR code on the back of the bulletin. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to the crayons and activity sheets relevant to today's sermon that are provided for children each week.

Introit

"Jubilate Deo"

Jubilate Deo, omnis terra; servite Domino.
Jubilate Deo, omnis terra; servite Domino in laetitia.
Laudate nomen ejus: quoniam suavis est Dominus. Alleluia.

O be joyful in the Lord; and come with a jubilant song.
O be joyful in the Lord; serve the Lord with gladness and come before him and sing a song of joy.

Come with thanksgiving and praise, for his truth endureth now and evermore. Alleluia.

text based on Psalm 100; music by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, arr. Linda Spevacek-Avery, 2001

* Call to worship

based on Psalm 146

Leader: Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul!

All: We will praise the LORD all our lives; we will sing praise to our God as long as we live.

Leader: Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God, the Maker of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them—the LORD, who remains faithful forever. He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

All: The LORD sets prisoners free, the LORD gives sight to the blind, the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down, the LORD loves the righteous. The LORD watches over the alien and sustains the fatherless and the widow. The LORD reigns forever—for all generations. Praise the LORD!

* Hymn of praise 53, vv. 1, 2, 5

“Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”

* Prayer of adoration

Affirmation of faith

The Heidelberg Catechism, question one

Leader: What is your only comfort in life and in death?

All: That I am not my own, but belong body and soul, in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Call to confession

from Colossians 3

Since you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Put to death whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires, and greed, which is idolatry. You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. But now you must rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

Hymn of confession 382

“God Himself Is with Us”

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

from Colossians 1

God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Christ, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.

* Hymn of assurance

"I Am Not Skilled to Understand"

I am not skilled to understand what God has willed, what God has planned;
I only know at his right hand is One who is my Savior!

I take him at his Word indeed: "Christ died for sinners," this I read, for in my heart I find a need of him to be my Savior!

Yes, living, dying, let me bring my strength, my solace from this spring, that he who lives to be my King once died to be my Savior!

text by Dora Greenwell, 1873; traditional English melody, O WALY WALY

Prayer of intercession

Leader: O God of compassion, we ask that you work powerfully in our community. Would you, through our prayers and our very lives, transform it and draw its people into relationship with you. In your great mercy, provide for those who are marginalized, those without jobs, food, shelter, or clothing, and be near to them by your Spirit.

All: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Leader: Be with the sick and the dying, those with chronic mental illness, those struggling with addiction, and those who are overwhelmed with medical expenses. Surround them with your loving presence, and equip us as we seek to meet their physical needs and share your Gospel of redemption and hope.

All: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Leader: Be with those who are blinded by arrogance, greed, and self-sufficiency. Call them to yourself, Lord, show them your love and open their hearts to your Spirit's transforming work. And may your Spirit be at work in us, granting us the words and actions to faithfully bear witness to who you are.

All: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Leader: Lord, heal the relational and societal rifts that exist in our city. Give strength, endurance, and encouragement to those working to promote peace, unity, and healing. Teach all of us to live our lives as living sacrifices, and to honor your image in every person we encounter.

All: Merciful God, hear our prayer. We pray now as your Son taught us to pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen."

Offertory

"Depth of Mercy"

Depth of mercy! Can there be mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God his wrath forbear; me, the chief of sinners spare?

I have long withstood his grace, long provoked him to his face, would not harken to his calls, I grieved him by a thousand falls.

At the throne my Savior stands, holding forth his wounded hands;
seeing him, my sin I feel; rend my heart and do his will; he forgives and loves me still.
text by Charles Wesley, 1740; music by Peter Davis, 1995

Deuteronomy 15:1-11

¹“At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release. ²And this is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release what he has lent to his neighbor. He shall not exact it of his neighbor, his brother, because the LORD’s release has been proclaimed. ³Of a foreigner you may exact it, but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand shall release.

⁴“But there will be no poor among you; for the LORD will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance to possess—⁵if only you will strictly obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all this commandment that I command you today. ⁶For the LORD your God will bless you, as he promised you, and you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow, and you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

⁷“If among you, one of your brothers should become poor, in any of your towns within your land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother, ⁸but you shall open your hand to him and lend him sufficient for his need, whatever it may be. ⁹Take care lest there be an unworthy thought in your heart and you say, ‘The seventh year, the year of release is near,’ and your eye look grudgingly on your poor brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to the LORD against you, and you be guilty of sin. ¹⁰You shall give to him freely, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake.

¹¹For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command you, ‘You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.’”
