

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN

Presbyterian Church

IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

You, our great God, are King of the Universe, dwelling beyond all worlds and stars and yet intimately present to human hearts. You were the one willing to suffer so that we might be healed, willing to stoop to us in our misery, so that we might stand tall as loved sons and daughters. You have served us even when we were unwilling to serve you, and longed for us even when we had ignored you. Surely you are a God of amazing grace who, out of your triune bounty, gives us all things.

OCTOBER 22, 2023 • SANCTUARY SERVICE • 9:30 AND 11:00 A.M.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the welcome card from the pew rack in front of you to share important information with us; an online form is available by scanning the QR code on the back of the bulletin. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God. We encourage you to read the text on the front of the bulletin as we prepare to worship together (attribution on the back cover).

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

"Canon of Praise"

Chancel Choir

Praise him, O praise him,
O come ye people, praise the Lord forever.
Sing praises to his holy name.

To the God of glory loudest praise now bring,
source of our salvation, our eternal King.

Praise him, praise him, praise the Lord forever.
Come and praise him, come and praise the Lord.

Praise him, O praise him,
O come ye people, praise the Lord forever.
Sing praises to his holy name.
O praise him, come and praise him,
come and praise the Lord.

 Call to worship

from Psalm 8

Leader: O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: You have set your glory above the heavens. From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise because of your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

Leader: When we consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?

All: You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

 Hymn of praise 115, vv. 1, 3, 4, 5

“All Creatures of Our God and King”

 Prayer of adoration

Affirmation of faith

from Philippians 2:6–11

Leader: What do the Scriptures teach us about Jesus Christ?

All: That he, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

New member vows

Call to confession

from Isaiah 5 and Proverbs 28

Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight. Their roots will decay and their flowers blow away like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD Almighty and spurned the word of the Holy One of Israel.

He who conceals his sins does not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

Psalm 103:8-13

The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever; he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.

Offertory

“For the Sake of His Name”

Chancel Choir

Go to the world for the sake of his name;
to ev'ry nation his glory proclaim.
Pray that the Spirit wise will open darkened eyes,
granting new life to display Jesus' fame.

Refrain: In Jesus' power, preach Christ to the lost;
for Jesus' glory, count all else but loss.
Gather from ev'ry place trophies of sov'reign grace.
Lest life be wasted, exalt Jesus' cross.

Love the unloved for the sake of his name;
like Christ, befriend those whose heads hang in shame.
Jesus did not condemn, but was condemned for them.
Trust gospel pow'r, for we once were the same. Refrain

Rescue the lost for the sake of his name;
as Christ commands, snatch them out of the flame.
Tell that, when Jesus died, God's wrath was satisfied;
urge them to flee to the Lamb who was slain. Refrain

Look to the throne for the sake of his name;
think of the throng who will share in his reign.
Some for whose souls we pray will share our joy that day,
joining our song for the sake of his name! Refrain

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

TONIGHT FOR OUR SUNDAY EVENING GATHERING, join us for a communion service in the sanctuary at 6:00 p.m.

AS WE CONSIDER YEAR-END GIVING to the annual budget, as well as to the RENEW campaign, our pastors have made available a five-day devotional resource, “Gifts for a King,” examining generosity to Jesus. Please prayerfully consider how God would have you steward your resources. We have a limited number of print copies of this booklet from the PCA Foundation available in the Narthex and fellowship hall lobby; it is also available electronically using this QR code.

Gifts for a King

Luke 14:1-14

¹One Sabbath, when he went to dine at the house of a ruler of the Pharisees, they were watching him carefully. ²And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy. ³And Jesus responded to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?” ⁴But they remained silent. Then he took him and healed him and sent him away. ⁵And he said to them, “Which of you, having a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?” ⁶And they could not reply to these things.

⁷Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, ⁸“When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, ⁹and he who invited you both will come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this person,’ and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

¹²He said also to the man who had invited him, “When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. ¹³But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just.”
