IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, our minds and bodies are full of many things this morning: exhaustion, anticipation, pain, confusion, joy, sorrow, disordered desires, and missed opportunities. But one thing is needful, to sit at your feet and give you praise. Meet us this morning, in your mercy.

JANUARY 28, 2024 • SANCTUARY SERVICE • 9:30 AND 11:00 A.M.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please scan the QR code on the back of your bulletin to share important information with us through an online form. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God. We encourage you to read the text on the front of the bulletin as we prepare to worship together.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

Introit

"Awake, My Heart"

Chancel Choir

Awake, my heart, and render to God, thy sure defender,
thy maker, thy preserver, a song of love and fervor.

Confirm my deeds and guide me: my day, with thee beside me,
beginning, middle, ending, will all be upward tending.

Awake, my heart, and render to God, thy sure defender,
thy maker, thy preserver, a song of love and fervor.
text by Paulus Gerhardt, 1647, tr. Winfred Douglas; music by Jane M. Marshall, 1958

* Call to worship

from Psalm 150

Leader: Praise the LORD!

All: Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens.
Praise him for his acts of power; praise him for his surpassing greatness. Let everything that has breath praise the LORD!

* Hymn of praise 7

"From All That Dwell below the Skies"

* Prayer of adoration

Call to confession

1 John 1:8–2:1

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives. My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

Silent prayers of confession

Choral prayer

“My Prayer”

Chancel Choir

Hear my prayer O LORD; I am poor and full of need.
Guard well my life; I submit to you;
I am your servant; you are my God!
Have mercy on me O Lord; I call unto you all the day long!

Dona nobis pacem. Alleluia. Amen.
You abound in love, so I call to you;
listen to my cry; give me your peace. Amen.
text based on Psalm 86, Isaiah 6, and Mass Ordinary; music by Scott M. Finch

Assurance of God’s pardoning grace based on 1 John 4:10 and 1 Peter 2:9

Leader: This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

All: For we are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that we may declare the praises of him who called us out of darkness into his wonderful light.

* Hymn of assurance

“There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy”

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy like the wideness of the sea;
there’s a kindness in his justice which is more than liberty.

There’s a welcome for the sinner and his grace flows like a flood;
there is mercy with the Savior; there is healing in his blood.

For the love of God is broader than the measure of our mind;
and the heart of the eternal is most wonderfully kind.

text by Frederick William Faber, 1862; music by John Zundel, 1870, ALL FOR JESUS

Prayer of praise and thanksgiving

Leader: Almighty God, Father of all mercies, as your unworthy servants, we give you most humble and heartfelt thanks for all your goodness and loving kindness to us and to all people.

All: We praise you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all, for your precious love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ.

Leader: We praise you for the means of grace and for the hope of glory.

All: We pray that you would give us that due sense of all your mercies, that our hearts may be sincerely thankful and that we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our very lives, by giving up ourselves to your service and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord. To him, to you our Father, and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory. Amen.

Luke 17:11-19

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance ¹³and lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." ¹⁴When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed.

¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; ¹⁶and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Then Jesus answered, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Debora Barnes and Teresa Miller.
