IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

*O Lord, whose way is perfect,
help us, I pray thee, always to trust in thy goodness:
that walking with thee and following thee in all simplicity,
we may possess quiet and contented minds;
and may cast all our care on thee, for thou carest for us. Amen.*

—Christina Rossetti

OCTOBER 27, 2024 • SANCTUARY SERVICE • 9:30 AND 11:00 A.M.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please scan the QR code on the back of your bulletin to share important information with us through an online form. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God. We encourage you to read the text on the front of the bulletin as we prepare to worship together.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

 Congregation standing as you are able*

Order of Worship

Prelude

"Laudate Dominum" (Sing Praise to the Lord)

C. Hubert H. Parry

(words for meditation may be found in your hymnal, #21)

Welcome and greetings

Frank Hitchings, senior associate pastor

* Call to worship

from Psalm 46

Leader: The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

All: God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging.

Leader: He says, "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."

All: The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress.

* Hymn of praise 92

"A Mighty Fortress Is Our God"

* Prayer of adoration

Sacrament of baptism

Georgia and Will Moore bringing William Campbell Moore Jr. (9:30)

Hendley and Hugh Morton bringing Hugh Philip Morton (11:00)

Who is a God like you, who pardons sin and forgives the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance? You do not stay angry forever but delight to show mercy. You will again have compassion on us; you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.

Prayer of confession

Leader: Merciful God, we confess to you that we have sinned.

All: We confess the sins that no one knows and the sins that everyone knows. We confess the sins that are a burden to us and the sins that do not bother us because we have grown used to them.

Leader: We confess our sins as a church.

All: We have not loved one another as Christ loved us. We have not forgiven one another as we have been forgiven. We have not given ourselves in love and service for the world as Christ gave himself for us.

Leader: Father, forgive us.

All: May your Holy Spirit move and convict our hearts, that we might live as you have created us to live.

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

from Romans 5 and Colossians 1

God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

* Hymn of assurance 347, vv. 1, 2, 4, 6

“The Church’s One Foundation”

Worship in the giving of God's tithe and our offerings

Offertory

“We Believe”

Chancel Choir

We believe in the Father, who created all there is;
and we believe the universe and all therein is his.
As a loving heavn'ly Father, he yearns to save us all,
to lift us from the fall, we believe.

We believe in Jesus, the Father's only Son, existing uncreated before time had begun.
A sacrifice for sin, he died, then rose again
to ransom sinful men, we believe.

We believe in the Spirit, who makes believers one.
Our hearts are filled with his presence; the Comforter has come.
His Kingdom unfolds in his plan, unhindered by quarrels of man,
his church upheld by his hand, we believe.

Tho' the earth be removed and time be no more,
these truths are secure; God's Word shall endure.
Whatever the change, these things are sure. We believe.

So if the mountains are cast down into the plain,
when kingdoms all crumble, this one remains.
Our faith is not subject to seasons of men.
With our fathers we proclaim.

We believe our Lord will come as he said.
The land and the sea will give up their dead.
His children will reign with him as their Head.
We believe! We believe!

IN MEMORIAM

Julia Ann Bronnenberg Ashlock
July 7, 1925 – October 18, 2024

The flowers in the sanctuary this morning are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Julia Ann Bronnenberg Ashlock.

Celebrating the baptism of William Campbell Moore Jr. at the 9:30 service in the sanctuary today are his parents, Georgia and Will Moore, his grandparents, Christian and David Cornell and Allison and Fred Moore, and his great-grandparents, Freida Jones, Yuvonne Cornell, Randy Cornell, Diane and Fred Moore, and Helen Bess and Allen Yates.

Celebrating the baptism of Hugh Philip Morton at the 11:00 service in the sanctuary today are his parents, Hendley and Hugh Morton, and his grandparents, Jenny and Philip Badcock and Katie and Don Morton.

Luke 21:12-19

¹²“But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name’s sake.

¹³This will be your opportunity to bear witness.

¹⁴“Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict.

¹⁶“You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. ¹⁷You will be hated by all for my name’s sake. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹By your endurance you will gain your lives.”
