IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Merciful Father, who wills not your children should wander in darkness; pour the light of your Spirit into our minds and hearts, that we may discover what is your holy will, and discern the true from the false, the evil from the good, that we may henceforth walk in all humility in the paths of heavenly wisdom and peace, to the glory of your holy name.

—John Hunter

DECEMBER 8, 2024 • SANCTUARY SERVICE • 9:30 AND 11:00 A.M.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please scan the QR code on the back of your bulletin to share important information with us through an online form. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God. We encourage you to read the text on the front of the bulletin as we prepare to worship together.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

Aaron Tolson, pastor of youth ministries

 Call to worship

based on Psalm 98 and Luke 1

Leader: Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things; his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

All: The LORD has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations. He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to the house of Israel.

Leader: Our souls magnify the Lord and our spirits rejoice in God our Savior!

All: The Mighty One has done great things for us—holy is his name. His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation!

 Hymn of praise 198, vv. 1, 4, 6

"Lift Up Your Heads, Ye Mighty Gates!"

 Prayer of adoration

Call to confession

1 John 1:8-9

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

from Colossians 1

God has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Christ, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

* Hymn of assurance 194, vv. 1, 3, 4

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

Lighting the candle of peace

In the days of the prophet Isaiah, the people looked forward to the coming birth of a Savior whom Isaiah described as Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there would be no end, and he would reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.

He himself is our peace. He came and preached peace to those who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we have access to the Father by one Spirit.

based on Isaiah 9:6-7; Ephesians 2:14, 17-18

Advent prayer

Leader: Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

All: O Prince of Peace, even in the midst of the shadows around us, your justice is dawning.

Leader: Darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples, but the LORD will arise upon you, and nations shall come to your light.

All: Fill us with wonder at your coming, and let our celebrations in this season spread new hope to a weary world.

Leader: We long for your return when all will be set right.

All: By your Spirit, teach us to embody your peace in all areas of our lives as we eagerly await that day, when the sun shall no longer be our light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to us by night. For the LORD will be our everlasting light and our God will be our glory.
