

EASTER SUNDAY

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please scan the QR code on the back of your bulletin to share important information with us through an online form. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

Easter Sunday Order of Worship

Prelude

“The Strife Is O’er, the Battle Done
arr. Christina Harmon

(words for meditation may be found in your hymnal, #275)

Welcome and greetings

John Mark Scruggs, pastor of congregational care

Introit

“Easter Anthem”

Chancel Choir

The Lord is ris’n indeed! Hallelujah!
Now is Christ risen from the dead,
and become the first fruits of them that slept. Hallelujah.

And did he rise? Did he rise?
Hear it, ye nations! Hear it, O ye dead!
He rose; he burst the bars of death and triumphed o’er the grave.

Then I rose, then first humanity triumphant passed the crystal ports of light, and seized eternal youth.

Thine’s all the glory, man’s the boundless bliss.

*text from the New Testament and Young’s Night Thoughts, 1742; music by William Billings, 1787,
ed. Robert Shaw, 1951*

 Call to worship

based on Revelation 5

Leader: Alleluia! Christ is risen!

All: He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Leader: With his blood, Jesus Christ has ransomed men for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

All: Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!

 Hymn of praise 277, vv. 1, 2, 3, 4

“Christ the Lord Is Risen Today”

 Prayer of adoration

Affirmation of faith

based on Ephesians 1 and 2

Leader: People of God, this is the hope to which we have been called:

All: God displayed his power and mighty strength when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over the church, which is his body.

Leader: As for us, we were dead in our transgressions and sins, in which we used to live when we followed the ways of this world.

All: But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ. And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace we have been saved, through faith—and this not from ourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God’s workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Call to confession

from Romans 3:20-25

No one will be declared righteous in God's sight by observing the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of sin. But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement, through faith in his blood.

Silent prayers of confession

* Assurance of God's pardoning grace

from Colossians 1

God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Christ, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.

* Hymn of assurance

"I Know that My Redeemer Lives"

I know that my Redeemer lives! What joy this blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead; he lives, my everlasting Head!

He lives to bless me with his love; he lives to plead for me above;
he lives, my hungry soul to feed; he lives to help in time of need.

He lives, all glory to his name! He lives, my Savior, still the same.
What joy this blest assurance gives: I know that my Redeemer lives! Amen.

text by Samuel Medley, 1775; music by John Hatton, 1978, DUKE STREET

Call to offering

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

Offertory

"Hallelujah! Jesus Lives!"

Chancel Choir

Hallelujah! Jesus lives! He is now the Living One;
from the gloomy halls of death, Christ, the conqueror has gone,
bright forerunner to the skies of his people, yet to rise.

Hallelujah! Angels, sing! Join with us in hymns of praise.

Let your chorus swell the strain which our feebler voices raise:

glory to our God above and on earth his peace and love!

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Luke 24:1-12

¹But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. ²And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. ⁵And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ⁷that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise.”

⁸And they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles, ¹¹but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter rose and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; and he went home marveling at what had happened.
