IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Gracious God, lover of the world, you are the one willing to suffer so that we might be healed, willing to stoop to us in our misery, so that we might stand tall as loved sons and daughters. You have served us even when we were unwilling to serve you, and longed for us even when we had ignored you. Surely you are a surprising God and a God of amazing grace.

We praise and thank you.

—The Worship Sourcebook

MAY 31, 2026 • SANCTUARY SERVICE • 9:30 AND 11:00 A.M.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please scan the QR code on the back of your bulletin to share important information with us through an online form. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God. We encourage you to read the text on the front of the bulletin as we prepare to worship together.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to crayons and children's bulletins.

Order of Worship

Prelude

“He Leadeth Me: O Blessed Thought!”

arr. Dale Wood

(words for meditation may be found in your hymnal, #600)

Welcome and greetings

John Mark Scruggs, pastor of congregational care

* Call to worship

1 Chronicles 29:10b-13

Leader: Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

All: Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.

Leader: Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.

All: Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

* Hymn of praise 111

“This Is My Father’s World”

* Prayer of adoration

Affirmation of faith

The Heidelberg Catechism, question one

Leader: What is your only comfort in life and in death?

All: That I am not my own, but belong body and soul, in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven: in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Call to confession

from Romans 13 and Acts 3

Let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

Repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord.

Hymn of confession 501, vv. 1, 2, 5, 6

“Just As I Am, without One Plea”

Silent prayers of confession

* Assurance of God’s pardoning grace

from 1 Peter 1

You know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect. Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

* Hymn of assurance 679, vv. 1, 2, 3

“’Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus”

Worship in the giving of God’s tithe and our offerings

Offertory

“Still, Still with Thee”

Soloist

Still, still with thee, when purple morning breaketh,
when the bird wakens, and the shadows flee;
fairer than morning, lovelier than daylight,
dawns the sweet consciousness, “I am with thee.”

When sinks the soul, subdued by toil to slumber,
its closing eyes look up to thee in prayer;
sweet the repose beneath thy wings o'ershading,
but sweeter still to wake and find thee there.

So shall it be at last in that bright morning,
when the soul awakens, and life's shadows flee;
O in that moment, fairer than daylight dawning,
shall rise the glorious thought, "I am with thee.

I am with thee; still, still with thee."

praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

John 6:60-71

<sup>60</sup>When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This is a hard saying; who can listen to it?"
<sup>61</sup>But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, "Do you take offense at this? <sup>62</sup>Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? <sup>63</sup>It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is no help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe." (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.)
<sup>65</sup>And he said, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father."

<sup>66</sup>After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. <sup>67</sup>So Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you want to go away as well?" <sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, <sup>69</sup>and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God." <sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve? And yet one of you is a devil." <sup>71</sup>He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the twelve, was going to betray him.
